CONSUMER

A good manufacturing partner plays a vital role in today's consumer electronics. High resolution flat-panel displays and screens for smartphones, tablets and TV's require extremely complex and high-precision manufacturing. With a population and demand for personal electronics on the rise, the consumer electronics market has become highly competitive.

M.I.S. provides leading edge technology that allows our OEM's to maintain an end product that is competitive, high quality, reactive, and adaptive to factors such as pricing pressures and/or shifts in demand within the marketplace.

CONSUMER PRODUCTS INCLUDE:
